PROOF DUR OWN CORRUSPONDENT.

LONDON, 1st February Matters connected with the Eastern Question have become so complicated and are enshrouded in such a deep aloud of mystery that I feel my-self hardly capable of describing them with such a degree of perspicuity as will render my rela-tion readable and intelligible. In the first place, I am sorry to say that the descensions which have to long been known to exist in the British Cabinot have resulted in an amount of irresolution and yacillation which is much to be regretted. Lord Carneryon explained in the House of Lords the reasons which induced him to resign. He let out a great many secrets which he should not have done and did himself very little credit. He seems to have all along held extreme views which Lord Beaconsfield telerated so long as they were not bruited abroad, but when Lord Carnervon went out of his way to explain to a deputation which waited on him about Cape affairs that the object of the Crimean War was idiotic and a rupture with Russia out of the question, the Pre-mier remonstrated with him, and as he could of the Monastery of St. Paul Trois Fontaines. neither excuse nor explain his extreme culpability have produced on "elixir" and a powder, which of speech, his resignation became a necessity are said to be very efficacious both in buring and Lord Derby's case was very different. Post Office Ordinance, 1876, which comes into force on the 23rd instant.

Under the old Ordinance no netice was required of the departure of a vessel if not advertised, nor of departures for Canton or Macao. Notice is now required of any departure, though with regard to sailing ships, the old rule will practically remain in force, that notice need not be sont unless asked for.
Section XXV: requires that the first notice be. sent to the Post Office. In the case of steamers plving regularly or on fixed days, notice of any change in the day of hour will be sufficient. Stamped correspondence may still be sent on board any vessel after the Mail is closed at the Post Office. The Postmaster-General takes this opportunity of calling the attention of firms to the fact that
